FOUR TENTS FOR SERVING DINNER

This Will Allow Three Townships to
Each Tent at Farmers Association
Picnic Friday

AT LEAST 6,000 EXPECTED

Every Township Represented at Meeting Saturday Afternoon to Arrange for Soliciting

Four tents have been obtained for serving the dinner at the picnic which will be given in the city park next Friday under the auspices of the Rush County Farmers association. This will allow three townships to each tent and will provide ample room for serving cafeteria style the immense crowd which is expected.

Every effort is being directed by the committee of one hundred and eighty, which met Saturday afternoon at the court house, toward serving six thousand dinners. There are fourteen hundred and three members of the farmers association. They with their families will make more than three thousand people and it is estimated that there will be equally as many guests as there are hosts. Each farmer is being requested by the committee to take twice as much food as his family would eat. Every township in the county was represented at the meeting.

The township committees, each of which is composed of fifteen women representing every locality, will solicit the members of the association this week for their baskets of food, with a special request that they contain a goodly portion of chicken.

Everyone is requested to attach a card bearing the name of the owner and the township in which they reside, to their basket, and also label their dishes so that nothing will be displaced and that the baskets will be delivered to the right booth. The township chairmen will have five men from each township to receive the baskets at the gates and deliver them to their respective township booths.

Arrangements have been made for making a large quantity of fine coffee on the grounds and each township organization has been requested to take containers for dispensing it at the booths. Five thousand tin cups have already been purchased for serving the coffee. Plates and napkins will also be provided for the dinners.

It is very kindly asked by the committee that those not assisting in serving the dinner remain away from the table and tents until the meal is ready and out of courtesy each member of the association should see to it that their own guests are served first because there is plenty of food to go around.

Tickets have been issued for all of the merchants of the county and members of the association, which also admits their families.

A very urgent invitation is extended to any farmer who is not a member of the county association, to take out a membership, take a basket and enjoy this big day socially. By doing so, it is pointed out, they will lend their influence and help to a cause of vital interest to every American farmer.

The committee in charge have distributed admission tickets for the picnic, which are in the form of but, tonhole identification cards. The tickets for the members of the farmers association are being distributed by the township secretaries, and every member is urged to be sure and wear his identification card when he attends the picnic.

It is the purpose of the committee to have a tag for everyone attending the picnic in order that the hosts and guests will be distinguished from each other at a glance. Tickets for the business men of the county are being issued by the township presidents. Special guest tickets will be available at the association headquarters on the picnic grounds for any visitors to whom the membership cards or business men's cards do not apply. Any business man or farmers' association member having a guest from out of town is urged to call at the headquarters and obtain a guest ticket.

WOMEN 95 YEARS OLD DIES

Miss Jane Mathers Came to Orange Township When a Child

Miss Jane Mathers, aged 95 years, died yesterday morning about four o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Garner, living two miles southeast of Gowdy. Miss Mathers was born in Kentucky, and while a young girl she and her parents moved to this county, Orange township, where she had resided since that time. The cause of her death was a complication of diseases caused by old age.

The deceased had no immediate relatives living besides her niece with whom she lived. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the residence and burial will take place in the Milroy cemetery.

Members of First Presbyterian Church Attend Services For
Former Pastor Sunday

SAMUEL L. TRABUE SPEAKS

Resolutions Adopted by Rushville
Ministerial Association Read
at Hartford City

Sixty-five Rushville people, the majority of them members of the First Presbyterian church of this city, attended the funeral services of the Rev. George F. Sheldon, former pastor of the church, at the Hartford City Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

Thirteen automobiles carried the Rushville delegation to Hartford City, the round trip amounting to one hundred and twenty-four miles. The body of the Rev. Mr. Sheldon, who died at Fort Wayne last Thursday afternoon from the effects of injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Fort Wayne Labor Day, was sent to Albion, Michigan, today for burial.

The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Lewis Manning of Muskegon, Michigan, who was associated with the Rev. Mr. Sheldon during his life and was a close personal friend. Samuel L. Trabue spoke at the service as the representative of the Rushville congregation and expressed well the sorrow of the local friends of the deceased pastor, because of his untimely death, just when he was beginning a ministry of service in Rushville which would have borne rich fruit.

Several members of the Hartford City church said yesterday that they expected to attend the memorial services which will be held at the church here next Sunday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock under the auspices of the Whitewater presbytery.

Resolutions adopted by the Rushville Ministerial association last Friday evening were read at the services Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Manning and were as follows:

Whereas—Death has come with the suddenness of a summer storm to our beloved brother and co-worker in the Gospel Ministry Rev. George F. Sheldon. Thus removing from the labors of earth, his loved ones in the flesh and faith, and associates in the ministry, one of God's noble men, and preachers of the Word.

Therefore—Be it resolved by the Ministerial Association of Rushville, Ind.:

First. That we humbly bow in grief before this tragic sorrow and shadow that has fallen over our fair city, the church and community he so faithfully served, the friends and family he so dearly loved, and the fellowship we had with him in this sacred service.

Second. That we express our appreciation of the manliness of the man. His devotion to his ministry. His interest in civic righteousness. His unflinching loyalty to the Word of His Lord. His kindly christian consideration of his brother ministers. His unflinching charity towards the ideas of all christian people. And that we commend the example

MOTOR TRIP ALMOST ENDS DISASTROUSLY

End of Passing Machine Swings
Into Front of O. M. Dale's Car
Near New Paris, Ohio.

NEITHER OF OCCUPANTS HURT

A two-weeks' motor trip by Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Dale, 424 North Main street, almost ended seriously yesterday afternoon, when their machine was struck by a passing machine near New Paris, O., and badly damaged, but both Mr. and Mrs. Dale escaped without injury, and the passing automobile never hesitated to ascertain the damage done.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale were returning home from the two weeks' tour of the east, and had just remarked about how fortunate they had been in not having trouble of any sort, when on the road 2½ miles from New Paris, a machine approached them at a rapid rate, and the rear end swung into the front end of the Dale machine.

Mrs. Dale was driving and was going about 18 miles an hour when the crash came. The front wheel was broken off and the car headed for the ditch, but luckily did not turn over. The other car was occupied by a man and a woman, and was going 40 or 50 miles an hour. The damaged machine was soon repaired, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale arrived home late last evening.

PREDICTS "OUTLAW" STRIKE WILL CONTINUE

men's Association, Believes Men Favor Fight to Finish.

FINAL DECISION WEDNESDAY

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 13.—Continuation of the "outlaw" strike of railroad switchmen was predicted today by H. E. Reading, president of the enginemen's association.

"Outlaws" through the country, Reading said, are voting today whether the men "will fight to a finish."

Latest tabulations on the vote taken here yesterday showed the Chicago "outlaws" in favor of a finish fight.

The bitter enders lead the conservatives today by nearly a thousand vote, returns showed.

Early returns indicated the vote was overwhelming for returning to work. According to Reading, the final decision will not be known until Wednesday.

FORMER RUSHVILLE DRAYMAN FOUND DEAD

Samuel E. Maines, Age 55, Dies Suddenly Today, Probably From Effects of Overdose of Medicine

TAKING HEART STIMULANT

Samuel E. Maines, age 55 years, expired this morning suddenly at his home in Moscow. His body was found by the family lying across the back walk, death probably being due to the taking of an overdose of medicine, which acted as a stimulant for his heart.

Mr. Maines was well known in this city, having been a drayman here for a number of years, up until a few years ago when they moved to Laurel, and later to Moscow. For several years he was a sufferer of stomach and heart trouble, and had been taking a strong heart medicine. The theory is that this morning he took an overdose, which induced heart failure. Coroner Lee has not yet returned a verdict.

The deceased is survived by three children, the wife having died about a year ago. The children are Mrs. Myrta Biggs of Decatur county, Raymond and a younger son. The funeral arrangements were not completed today, but the burial will probably be made in East Hill cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

STRAW VOTE WILL BE CONDUCTED BY STORES

Pitman and Wilson's One of 8,000
Which Will Take Poll During
Presidential Campaign

FORECAST RESULT IN 1916

Pitman and Wilson, local druggists, announced today that the eight thousand Rexall stores in the United States would conduct a straw vote this campaign similar to the one four years ago. The vote received from every state in the Union will be tabulated in Boston and will be sent to all the stores for posting.

It is recalled that the Rexall stores polled a million votes in nine days during the last presidential campaign and forecast Wilson's election even to the state he carried by a small margin.

Ballot boxes will be placed in front of Pitman and Wilson's store and ballots will be provided for voting. Bulletins will be posted daily showing national, state and local results of the poll. The men's and women's votes will be cast separately and tabulated separately. The first report on the national vote will be issued Sept. 21, the second on Sept. 28, the third on Oct. 1 and from that time on every day until the election.

WINDS LAY SOME CORN LOW

Storm Severe in Southern Rush County.

The wind storm late Saturday afternoon laid the corn low in many sections of southern Rush county, according to reports received from that section today. The damage was severe to many fields, especially in Orange township.

The electrical storm of Saturday morning was damaging in northern Rush county, it was reported today, killing two cows belonging to Charles Custer of the northern part of Union township. Two large trees on Dan Long's farm near Gings were hit by lightning and set on fire. They were still burning last night.

Cox's personal representative, had submitted evidence in connection with the campaign fund investigation for Grand Jury investigation.

PLANT TO BE READY TO START MONDAY

County Agent D. D. Ball Announces
Seed Wheat Testing Will Begin
on That Date

FARMER LIMITED TO 5 BUSHEL

Will be in Operation Three Weeks
and Approximately 1200 Bushels
Will be Treated

County Agent D. D. Ball announced today that the seed wheat treating plant would be ready for operation by next Monday morning, when over 1,200 bushels of seed will be given the hot water treatment and about three weeks time will be required in doing the work.

The work this year will be carried on as it was last year in the old heating plant building, back of the jail. The interior is being rearranged, and Mr. Ball has made extensive improvements, so that more wheat can be treated this year than there was last.

Instead of using the furnace that is in the building, a traction engine will be used on the outside of the building in order to heat the water for the tanks.

It will be equipped to take care of five bushels of wheat at a time. Farmers will unload the grain at a window on the south side, in the alley, and it will then be transferred into vats of cold water, where the seed remains in soak for five hours, before being given the hot water treatment.

All grain must be cleaned first by the farmer and much time will be saved at the plant here. After the seed has soaked for five hours it is then put into a tank, which is suspended on a moving track, and is dipped into hot water, which will be 129 degrees. The five bushels will remain in this hot water, at the even temperature for ten minutes and will then be hoisted out another door into the open, where it is to be spread out for a pre-cooling and is to be afterwards dried by the farmer in his barn.

The plans are about worked out, and it is expected that 100 bushels will be given the treatment each day, which will mean that the county agent and assistants will be kept busy all day, beginning at three o'clock in the morning, when the first seed must be put into the cold water for soaking, making the hot water treatment begin at eight o'clock each day.

The value of giving the hot water treatment has been explained before, and is well known by all progressive farmers who have had their seed wheat treated before. Last year over 500 bushels were treated, and this year it is planned to accept 100 bushels from each township, with five bushels being the limit from each farmer.

There are still a few available dates left, and anyone who has not made arrangements in his township for taking the treatment, should consult the county agent, and secure a date, as well as typewritten instructions regarding the treatment.

CONVENTION TO COVER TWO DAYS

Second Annual Meeting of Indiana
Federation of Farmers' Associations to be Longer.

TO MAKE ROOM FOR SPEECHES

Dairying Department Similar to One
For Live Stock and Grain Men
To Be Established.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 13.—At the quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations it was decided that the program of the second annual state convention of the organization should cover two days this year instead of one as originally provided. Speakers of national importance will be brought here to address the delegates to the convention which promises to be the greatest gathering of its kind ever held in Indiana. The board of directors were unanimous in their opinion that aside from the transaction of regular convention business, a program should be provided which would give the farmers the opportunity of hearing addresses from recognized expert on questions of vital interest to the rural communities.

In the absence of President John G. Brown, the board meeting was presided over by Everett McClure, first vice-president of the state federation. One of the most important action of the board was a decision to establish a dairying department similar to that established for the live stock and the grain producers' department. A committee is to be appointed soon to investigate dairying conditions in Indiana and obtain information of value to the producers.

Word has been received by Lewis Taylor, general secretary of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations, from Gray Silver, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, that negotiations are pending for the War Department to turn over tremendous quantities of surplus property suitable for use on the farm. Included in this property is several hundred thousand sets of high grade harness, saddles, many thousand wagons, auto truck trailers, tools, etc.

Mr. Taylor said that through a tentative plan large quantities of this material would be turned over to the national organization of the farmers at most attractive prices and every facility of the War Department used in assisting in getting this material to the consumer. Before going further with the proposition the national organization expects to take up the feasibility of handling the surplus property through the various state organizations of farmers.

In setting out the proposition Mr. Gray said in his communication, "The idea we have in mind, is simply to make arrangements to send to the states interested samples of all the material offered together with a specially prepared catalog picturing and describing these articles. The idea is to have the state organization take the matter up with the local county associations and arrange to have meetings in each county where special opportunity would be given members to order."

A part of the plan after the local orders had been taken would be to place all of these into a state order and these in turn concentrated into one national order. It was reported that if the orders were handled on this basis the War Department would go to extraordinary lengths to work with the farmers in the distribution of these immense supplies of army goods.

The case in police court against Marlin Gibson, charged with operating his automobile without license plates, has been continued by Mayor Irvin until November 10, and will be heard by a jury. No reason has been assigned for continuing the case for such a long period of time. It was set for trial last Friday night, but Mayor Irvin decided to continue the case.

SUIT FOR PARTITION FILED

Sale of 80-Acre Farm and Division of Proceeds Asked.

James R. McKee et al. have filed a suit in partition against Joseph C. McKee and others, on a complaint to partition an 80 acre farm which was deeded the plaintiffs and defendants by the late William McKee. Several persons are named as plaintiffs and defendants, and because the land cannot be equally divided, the plaintiffs want a commissioner appointed and the land sold, and an equal distribution of the money from the sale.

John F. Joyee is also plaintiff in an action against Emmett Howe, asking that the court appoint a guardian for the defendant because of his old age, infirmities and because he is alleged to be incapable of managing his own affairs.

LAWTON MAKES CHECK GOOD

The Rev. G. H. Lawton of Arlington paid the $10.25 in Squire Stech's court late Saturday afternoon, and the ease against him was dismissed. The Rev. Mr. Lawton was alleged to have given the justice of peace a fraudulent check in payment of a fine for the same offense, and the court gave him until Saturday night to make a settlement of the check. Because the check was made good in the squire's court, a further charge was not instigated against the minister.

LEGION EXPEDITES INSURANCE MATTERS

One Instance is Noted of Injured Soldier Who Waited For Checks But Death Won Out

BUREAU SEEMS INEFFICIENT

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 11.—With the United States Government owing him $700 in back compensation and with an appeal made to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance to expedite the checks for the last two month's payments which had never been received in order that he might sign them on his death-bed to meet his funeral expenses, John Murray, totally disabled veteran of the World War, died here penniless. Death had outraced red tape.

The receipt of the money two days too late was the closing episode in a tragedy of delay. While Murray was dying the Service Division of National Headquarters of the American Legion over the wires was spurring the War Risk Bureau to action and the Bureau, was unable to respond before the time limit, Murray's last hour of life had expired. A week elapsed before the Bureau answered the Legion's telegraphed appeal with notice that the check was on its way.

Murray served overseas with the Third Field Artillery and was wounded in the foot, necessitating the amputation of his right leg near the hip. Later his lungs became affected by exposure on the battlefield and through the efforts of the Legion a claim for permanent total disability was allowed him.

Neglect Keeps Doctors Busy

An eminent physician once said: "Were it not for people who neglect the early symptoms of disease, many doctors would have to find a new way to make a living."

Every winter doctors are busy calling on gripe and pneumonia patients because the first symptoms of colds were neglected.

Watch out for a cold this year. At the first sneeze and sniffle take Lightning Laxative Quinine Tablets. You'll stop the cold and feel like a new person in 24 hours. Never gripe or sicken. Druggists guarantee them.—25c a box.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infests the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface. One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief.

Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 151 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

After a search for an ideal type that he had conducted for a month, Maxwell Karger, Director General of Screen Classics, Inc., engaged Leatrice Joy to play the leading feminine role in "The Right of Way," which shows at the Princess Theatre today and tomorrow. A picturization of the celebrated novel by Sir Gilbert Parker, starring Bert Lytell in the part of "Beauty" Steele, will be Metro's next Lytell release following "Lombardi, Ltd."

Miss Joy, will be seen at Rosalie Eventurail, a young French Canadian schoolmistress, whose spiritual influence is a powerful factor in the regeneration of "Beauty" Steele after a blow on the head has caused the Montreal barrister to lose all recollection of his past life. In the northern Canadian woods Rosalie is chosen, because of her deep religious fervor, to participate in a re-production of the Biblical Passion Play.

Miss Joy's services loaned to Screen Classics, Inc., by George Loane Tucker. That producing director has Miss Joy under contract for three years and permitted her to take the leading feminine role in the Lytell production as it happened that he had no immediate call for her.

Greenwich Village Follies

The decidedly bizarre flare of the theatrical horizon is occasioned by the announcement that the Greenwich Village Follies, the revivisical comedy of life in New York's martier Latin, will play an engagement of one week at the Shubert-Murat theatre, Indianapolis, starting Monday New York's picturesque Bohemian night, September 20. This slice from section comes to Indianapolis after a record-breaking run of seven months in New York, and a twenty-week engagement in Chicago this past summer.

The book and lyrics are by Phillip Bartholomew and John Murray Anderson, and the music is by A. Baldwin Sloane. The stage direction, which has caused much comment in itself, is by Mr. Anderson. He came as a surprise to the conventional theatrical manager with this, his first notable effort. His principal accomplishment was to sweep away all scenery and use draperies exclusively. On these, around and about them, he played electric and multi-colored lights, with a mastery justified by his years of training and the Company of the great craftsman, Sir Herbert Tree. Anderson has done a great many things in the Follies, which have caused comment.

But it is after all in the players that the principal value lies. Conspicuous in the imposing array of celebrities whom the Bohemians have assembled in the Follies are James Watts, an adept in the art of burlesque and travesty. Ted Lewis the jazz King and his delirious trombones, Verna ordon, America's foremost disciple of the exotic dance, and Al Herman the Blackface Comedian, labeled by Ernie as the "Jaquard laugh-maker".

Jap Actor at Mystic.

Sessue Hayakawa, the Oriental star shifts to sunny Spain for the scene of "The Bran of Lopez," in which he is to be seen at the Mystic Theater today.

Hayakawa plays the part of Vasco Lopez, one of the most famous matadors, or bull-fighters in the kingdom of Spain. There is more action and conflict in this picture than in any Hayakawa recently has made, save perhaps only "The Tong Man."

Jealousy motivates the early part of the picture, and leads the matador into a duel with a young military man who flirts with Lola Castillo, the matador's sweetheart. After he has risked his life in a fierce battle with daggers the girl refuses to fly with the matador to escape the police who want him for dueling. He is arrested and imprisoned. Before going behind the bars he threatens revenge upon the girl and the man she marries.

Later Lopez is lead into another fight with the husband of his former sweetheart. This affair makes him a hunted man, and henceforth he is a bandit. He has a son by a village girl whom he carries off. The fact that he has become a father softens him, and he promises to return and wed the girl. Just as he is preparing to do this the girl dies. Then Lopez swears vengeance upon the villagers, who had taunted her, and made her so miserable that her death followed. His destruction of the village leads up to the most dramatic series of episodes which show Lopez as a heroic figure touched with pathos.

Chief's Star Glitters Unusually Bright Today

The star worn by the chief of police glittered unusually bright today, and their was a reason. Chief Arvy Wilfong has taken unto himself a bride. Mr. Wilfong and Mrs. Mary Jones of South Harrison street were married Thursday by Squire Stech, and have returned home from a short wedding trip. The bride is 34 years old and the chief is 42 years. It was the second marriage for Mrs. Wilfong and the third for Mr. Wilfong.

CLOSER TAB KEPT ON STILL MANUFACTURERS

United States Treasury Department

Decides to Tighten Regulations On Sale

TO LESSEN OUTPUT OF BOOZE

Washington, Sept. 13.—In an effort to end illicit distilling of intoxicating liquor, the United States treasury has decided to tighten regulations around the sale of stills and add another check to its means of tracing down their users.

Manufacturers of stills are required by the new regulations to report all sales, the names of purchasers and locations where the stills are to be set up. Names of manufacturers must be securely attached to the articles sold, and sworn statements must be obtained from purchasers setting forth the purposes for which stills are to be used.

Until the manufacturer has complied with the new regulations he is not permitted to allow the still to leave his wareroom. Such sales cannot be finally consummated until a permit or certificate has been granted by the local Internal Revenue authorities.

Details of the still's specifications are demanded as well as the production capacity on a per day basis. Copies of this information must be preserved by the manufacturer and the purchaser and a third copy delivered to the Internal Revenue agent at the place of sale such records to be open for examination at all times.

To avoid resales between dealers through which identity of the stills might be lost, the regulation requires the application for a permit each time such a transfer takes place.

Both revenue and prohibition enforcement officers must be appraised of any proposed change of location of a still, and a permit must be obtained which will set forth all details of the original sale certificate as well as giving the new information required.

Just a Reminder

How would you like to journey to the nearest city for a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread, or a smoke? And how would you like to make the trip when you need a prescription filled in a hurry with death running you a race?

You would make some noise if forced to such an extremity—and then more noise.

You would say—and justly so—that a town in which you can not buy a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread, or a smoke, or even get a prescription filled, is a mighty poor excuse for a town and not worth living in.

Yet our merchants can only afford to keep these things for your convenience as long as you buy other things from them.

It is not doing this town any good to buy the little things here and then chase off to a city or send to a catalogue house when you want something on which the merchant has a chance to make a dollar.

Neither is it doing you any good, for the prosperity of each citizen is dependent to a large extent upon the prosperity of the community as a whole.

We are not telling you something you do not know.

We are simply refreshing your memory in hopes the time may come when our people will conclude that a town that is worth living in is worth trading in.

That's all.

The Prodigal May Return

There are unmistakable indications of a coming change in our economic condition, and this, we hope, will bring many thousands of our wandering boys back to the farms.

Banks throughout the country are tightening up on loans, and are calling in those made for speculative purposes.

The public is ceasing to buy as extravagantly as of yore, with the result that manufacturers are of necessity curtailing their output.

This is throwing thousands of men out of employment, and many of them are experiencing difficulty in finding other sources of earning a livelihood.

As a rule the farm hand who rushed off to the city is the least experienced in these trades, and it is but natural that he should be among the first to be laid off.

What more sane course could he pursue than to return to the farm, where is an expert and employment is always awaiting him?

Speed the return of the wandering boy. He is welcome before he arrives.

The man who overrates his ability generally learns when to late that he had none to overrate.

If you don't like the bad luck that is pursuing you, kick it into the discard and hitch onto a better kind. No one is preventing you.

The ability to speak a number of languages is quite commendable, but to be able to speak our own correctly is more dependable.

Silence is golden, some say, but not when you are waiting for a bad bill to be paid.

It is human nature to admire men who "do things", but there are times when we think more of those who don't.

The Bible admonishes us to tell the truth, but wisdom dictates that we be careful who we tell it to for fear it be distorted.

Keep shining, shining

With great intensity,
Showing your density;
Bark on, to beat the band—
See how much I CAN stand!
Keep barking, barking,

Disintegration of the League

The renomination of Senator Moses by the Republicans of New Hampshire at the primaries on Tuesday is followed by the equally significant and satisfactory renomination of Senator Brandegee by the Republicans of Connecticut at their State Convention yesterday. Mr. Brandegee is one of the ablest, squarest and most useful men in the Senate. His services here cannot be spared by the party or the country.

All the indications afforded by these recent incidents of preliminary politics point to the rapid disintegration of the Wilson League of Nations in the esteem of the American people.

As we said yesterday, the hope of universal peace was so general and so eager after the armistice that probably 90 percent of our citizens were inclined to view with favor any proposal for an international association or concert or tribunal which should reduce the probability of another such horrible experience.

Perhaps this estimate of the percentage is too low. Perhaps ninety-five out of every one hundred Americans were receptive as to the League of Nations at the time when The Sun now The Sun and New York Herald, first endeavored to show the hollowness, the falseness, the unconstitutionality, the hopelessness of the self-determined scheme which Mr. Wilson obstinately insisted must be accepted at his hand if our government was to enter any international agreement for the sake of peace.

The nationwide change of opinion which rapidly succeeding events now exhibit from day to day is one of the most remarkable demonstrations that we can recall of the power of hard common sense over prismatic sentimentalism. There is no less love of peace and hope for enduring peace in the hearts of Americans today than there was two years ago, when President Wilson began to juggle with delusive phrases. But there has been a tremendous decline of popular faith in his specific; a great increase of popular conviction that the supergovernment his covenant offers us in place of our independent nationalism is sure to be a war maker, not a peace preserver.

Undoubtedly this last consideration has had a leading part in producing the phenomenal change here referred to. There can be of course no exact census of those who have changed their original view of the Wilson League of Nations; but if we were to venture a statistical guess, based on recent incidents and indications, we should surmise that the 90 or 95% had now fallen to 30 percent or thereabouts, with the decline and fall off still actively progressive.

MRS. WM. P. SMITH of Los Angeles, Calif., who says Tanlac completely restored her health when no one believed she would ever be well again. Has gained thirteen pounds.

"I will never stop praising Tanlac, for it has restored my health when everyone who knew of my dreadful condition had no idea I would ever get well.

"Two years ago, following an accident, I began suffering from indigestion and severe stomach trouble. I grew worse so rapidly that my health soon became perfectly wretched. My stomach became so weak I couldn't eat the simplest food or even drink a glass of milk without suffering for hours afterward. I was extremely nervous, and would have palpitation of the heart so badly at times I would almost faint. My circulation was very poor, I had no color, and weighed only eighty-one pounds. It seemed I was just gradually starving by degrees, and I had almost given up hope.

"After the best medical treatment failed to help me, travel and a change of surroundings was advised, so I traveled nearly all over the United States and had treatment every place I went, but always with the same disappointing results. How I stood my suffering is more than I can tell, and I became so despondent that life seemed hardly worth living.

"That is just the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac. When my husband first suggested Tanlac I told him I had no faith in it, but the next day he bought me a bottle, and to my great surprise it seemed to agree with me, so I kept on taking it. The results speak for themselves.

"I have gained thirteen pounds in weight, and I feel perfectly well in every way. My appetite is splendid and I eat just anything I want and never have the slightest symptom of indigestion. I am so happy over the recovery of my health that I feel just like telling everybody about this wonderful medicine."

The above remarkable statement was made recently by Mrs. William P. Smith, a well known and highly respected resident of Los Angeles, Calif., residing at 139 East Avenue 36.

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2—Adv.

Tail Lights Win From Beech Grove Red Sox Sunday, 9 to 6, Pulling Out of Bad Hole

GAME IS INTERESTING ONE

Visitors Take Early Lead by Hitting Plummer Freely Put Rushville Pulls Out in Front

Pounding two pitchers hard, the Tail Lights won from the Beech Grove Red Sox yesterday afternoon on the West Third street diamonds by the score of 9 to 6, in a game that was well played by both teams, and featured by the pitching of Plummer who succeeded in getting out of several bad places.

When the game first started, it looked as if the Tail Lights were doomed, as the first batted up, Flagler, pounded out a double past second base, and continued to run, stealing third base, and an overthrow in order to check his running, brought him in home.

Naney, next man up, was out on a fly ball. Thorn singled and Hamilton was safe on an error. Ryker was out on a fly. Askins, next man up was out on an infield ball. Two hits, and two errors brought in two runs.

The Tail Lights went one ahead of the visitors in the last of the second inning, when three singles, a base on balls, earned three runs for the home team.

Loomis, pitching for the Red Sox, was being hit freely and was replaced in the sixth inning by Waywood, who allowed only four hits. The Tail Lights scored three runs in the eighth inning, which sewed up the game, although the visitors started a rally in both the eighth and ninth innings, which for a time looked to be serious.

In the eighth inning, the Tail Lights worked out of a bad place. Thorn, first up, was out on a fly ball. Hamilton was struck by a wild pitch, and was given first base. Ryker singled. Askins was walked. The bases were filled with only one out. Smith was at bat and smacked the ball to Plummer, who pegged it to home, and Byrne threw it to first base, making a double play, which probably prevented the visitors from scoring.

In the ninth inning, the visitors again showed up dangerous, and put across two more runs. Lancaster, first man up, singled, followed by a two base hit by Waywood, scoring Lancaster. Flagler delivered a three base hit, scoring Waywood. With two runs in, and no outs, the chances began to look bad. Naney, next man up, hit a pop up to Conway, shortstop, and Flagler was held on third base. Thorn, next up, fanned. Hamilton flew out to the outfield. Three hits in this inning delivered two runs.

The Tail Lights pounded the ball hard throughout the game, making 14 hits. Every man on the team succeeded in getting a hit except Byrne, who was walked three times, and was safe on first base on an error. Byrne also put across three of the runs for the Tail Lights, although he did not get a hit. The pitchers were evidently afraid to let him hit. Pearsey was at bat four times, and made three hits.

The game yesterday was the kind

"Would Bloat Up Like A Balloon"

Claims his stomach caused him much uneasiness by filling up with gas. Was very nervous and constipated. Two bottles of Drecto proved a great blessing to him.

"I have suffered a great deal from constipation and all the distress that goes with it. My bowels refused to act in a normal manner and I had to be continually taking physic," said Mr. Ollie Clark residing on East Front St., Huntington, Ind.

"It seemed like everything I ate turned to gas and bloated me up like a balloon. Every one who has suffered from stomach trouble has experienced this unpleasant sensation. I would get so nervous I couldn't sleep."

"Then one day I was fortunate enough to hear about Drecto and what it would do for cases like mine. I didn't hesitate in getting a bottle, for I felt that if it had helped others it would surely do as much for me. Well, it seemed to suit my case exactly and I hadn't taken many doses until I felt the benefit.

"I have just finished my second bottle and I am entirely free from gas; I can sleep like a top and have lost that nervous, restless feeling. Drecto is fine."

All druggists now sell Drecto and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.—Adv.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Harry Matthew Meyer, who died four years ago Sept. 11, 1916.

Sad is the memory of four years ago When you left us all in sorrow, For that home so far away.

You bade no one a last farewell, You could say good-bye to none, A dear young heart had ceased to beat,

Before we knew that you had gone.

We often sit and think of you, When we are all alone,

For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own.

We miss you more and more each day,

As days and weeks roll by— But, Oh, we live in hope of meeting,

In that heavenly home on high. FATHER, MOTHER, BROTHERS & SISTER. 155t1

TAKES UP HIS NEW DUTIES IN NEW YORK

Tom J. Geraghty's Rise in Motion Picture Business Described in New York Telegram

IS THE PRODUCTION EDITOR

Tom J. Geraghty arrived in New York from California last week and will immediately take up the duties of Eastern production editor of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, the position recently relinquished by Roswell Dague, who has been granted a long leave of absence during which he will travel extensively.

On his way East Mr. Geraghty made a short visit at his old home in Rushville, Ind. The rise of Tom Geraghty has been an epic of ability. From grocery counter to printer's devil to star reporter have been certain steps to his present eminence as a writer for the screen. He worked in his father's general store in Rushville before he "cubbed" as a reporter on the Rushville Republican, and it was his newspaper work in the little Indiana town that attracted the attention of Samuel G. Blythe, the famous political writer, and it was not long after that he was drawing pay on the New York Herald. His rise to the rank of star reporter was rapid. "But the moving picture bee slipped into my bonnet," he relates, "and I went the way of so many good newspaper men—I began writing film publicity. After exploiting Metro productions for some time I began reading in their scenario department, then titling and cutting."

His first real scenario position, however, was with Famous Players-Lasky, and among scenarios written the first year were "Those Without Sin" and "The American Consul."

From that time to the present he has occupied a high place in the profession and has been the author of many of the most successful original stories and adaptations that have appeared on the screen.

The First Dose Gave Relief

C. E. Summers, Holdrege, Neb., writes: "Some time ago I contracted a very severe cough and cold due to exposure. My cough got so bad I could hardly sleep for two or three nights. A friend of mine recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and I got a 50c bottle. The very first dose relieved me. I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I did not cough once all night. By using as directed the next two days my cough was entirely gone, and I give Foley's Honey and Tar full credit for my speedy and permanent recovery."

For more than thirty years Foley's Honey and Tar has been used with satisfaction and success.

MAINE'S VOTERS GATHER AT POLLS

To Ballot for Governor, Auditor and to Settle a Political Race That Has Been Fought

CONTEST IS OF INTEREST

Vote of Newly Enfranchised Women Will be Watched With Perhaps The Greatest Interest

Augusta, Me., Sept. 13—Maine's electorate gathered at the polls today to ballot for a governor, state auditor and members of Congress and to settle a political race that has been as bitterly fought as any witnessed here in recent years.

The contest in Maine has been watched with unusual interest throughout the rest of the country and its outcome, it is predicted, will indicate the trend of the national campaign. A heavy oratorical barrage has been laid down from one end of the state to the other, both Democrats and Republicans sending nationally-known spellbinders into every district.

While conceded to be a Republican state, Democrats assert they will win this year, pointing out that Democratic governors were elected in 1910 and 1914 and the Republican majority cut from a normal 12,000 to 5,000 when Hughes carried the state in 1916.

Col Frederic H. Parkhurst is the Republican candidate for governor. He is opposed by Bertrand G. McIntire, Democrat. Parkhurst defeated Gov. Carl E. Milliken at the primaries; McIntire was beaten by Milliken two years ago.

The Congressional races in Maine's four districts are as follow:

First—Republican, Carrol L. Beedy, Portland; Democrat, Frank H. Haskell, Portland.

Second—Republican, Wallace H. White, Lewiston; Democrat, Wallace N. Price, Richmond.

Third—Republican, John A. Peters, Ellsworth; Democrat, Archie Towle, Oakland.

Fourth—Ira G. Hersey, Houlton; Democrat, Leon C. G. Brogn, Milo.

The present state auditor, Roy L. Wardwell of Augusta, Republican, is running for re-election against former representative James J. Neilon, Biddeford.

The vote of the newly enfranchised women will be watched with perhaps greatest interest. Political observers, however, contend the new votes will have no appreciable effect on the outcome.

The suffrage question was submitted to a referendum today, also. The state legislature ratified the nineteenth amendment, but a sufficient number of petitioners asked a test vote at the polls. The result, if adverse, would not, it is believed, effect the validity of nation suffrage, in view of the Supreme Court's ruling in a similar situation in Ohio.

REPUBLICANS PLAN A BUSY CAMPAIGN

From Now Until Election Stump Speakers Will be Seen Throughout The State From Headquarters

HARDING WILL SPEAK SOON

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 13—Top-notch speakers for the Republican rallies in this state will be supplied by the Republican national speakers' bureau, Fred B. Robinson, chairman of the state speakers' bureau, said today.

Mr. Robinson declared that Senator Harding's followers are greatly pleased with the announcement that he intends to come to Indianapolis for an address about the middle of October, and delegations from many countries are planning to come here for the big rally.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and a number of prominent women speakers will be on the stump in this state later on.

The next big Republican event of state-wide importance will be the celebration of Constitution Day, September 17, Mr. Robinson said. On that day meetings will be held in every county in the state under the auspices of the Republicans, to celebrate the anniversary of the adoption of the constitution of the United States.

MEAT PACKERS IN SESSION

Will Lay Plans for Increasing Livestock Production

Atlantic City, N. J. Sept. 13—Meat packers from all parts of the country met here today to discuss problems affecting that industry, particularly plans for increasing livestock production.

Producers are said to have been marketing cattle below the cost of production and many packers report losses in handling beef. This situation, it was feared, may result in a serious decrease in the number of food animals raised.

The meeting, called by Thomas E. Wilson, president of the Institute of American Meat Packers, will last three days.

FOUR TENTS FOR SERVING DINNER

This Will Allow Three Townships to
Each Tent at Farmers Association
Picnic Friday

AT LEAST 6,000 EXPECTED

Every Township Represented at Meeting Saturday Afternoon to Arrange for Soliciting

Four tents have been obtained for serving the dinner at the picnic which will be given in the city park next Friday under the auspices of the Rush County Farmers association. This will allow three townships to each tent and will provide ample room for serving cafeteria style the immense crowd which is expected.

Every effort is being directed by the committee of one hundred and eighty, which met Saturday afternoon at the court house, toward serving six thousand dinners. There are fourteen hundred and three members of the farmers association. They with their families will make more than three thousand people and it is estimated that there will be equally as many guests as there are hosts. Each farmer is being requested by the committee to take twice as much food as his family would eat. Every township in the county was represented at the meeting.

The township committees, each of which is composed of fifteen women representing every locality, will solicit the members of the association this week for their baskets of food, with a special request that they contain a goodly portion of chicken.

Everyone is requested to attach a card bearing the name of the owner and the township in which they reside, to their basket, and also label their dishes so that nothing will be displaced and that the baskets will be delivered to the right booth. The township chairmen will have five men from each township to receive the baskets at the gates and deliver them to their respective township booths.

Arrangements have been made for making a large quantity of fine coffee on the grounds and each township organization has been requested to take containers for dispensing it at the booths. Five thousand tin cups have already been purchased for serving the coffee. Plates and napkins will also be provided for the dinners.

It is very kindly asked by the committee that those not assisting in serving the dinner remain away from the table and tents until the meal is ready and out of courtesy each member of the association should see to it that their own guests are served first because there is plenty of food to go around.

Tickets have been issued for all of the merchants of the county and members of the association, which also admits their families.

A very urgent invitation is extended to any farmer who is not a member of the county association, to take out a membership, take a basket and enjoy this big day socially. By doing so, it is pointed out, they will lend their influence and help to a cause of vital interest to every American farmer.

The committee in charge have distributed admission tickets for the picnic, which are in the form of but, tonhole identification cards. The tickets for the members of the farmers association are being distributed by the township secretaries, and every member is urged to be sure and wear his identification card when he attends the picnic.

It is the purpose of the committee to have a tag for everyone attending the picnic in order that the hosts and guests will be distinguished from each other at a glance. Tickets for the business men of the county are being issued by the township presidents. Special guest tickets will be available at the association headquarters on the picnic grounds for any visitors to whom the membership cards or business men's cards do not apply. Any business man or farmers' association member having a guest from out of town is urged to call at the headquarters and obtain a guest ticket.

Members of First Presbyterian Church Attend Services For
Former Pastor Sunday

SAMUEL L. TRABUE SPEAKS

Resolutions Adopted by Rushville
Ministerial Association Read
at Hartford City

Sixty-five Rushville people, the majority of them members of the First Presbyterian church of this city, attended the funeral services of the Rev. George F. Sheldon, former pastor of the church, at the Hartford City Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

Thirteen automobiles carried the Rushville delegation to Hartford City, the round trip amounting to one hundred and twenty-four miles. The body of the Rev. Mr. Sheldon, who died at Fort Wayne last Thursday afternoon from the effects of injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Fort Wayne Labor Day, was sent to Albion, Michigan, today for burial.

The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Lewis Manning of Muskegon, Michigan, who was associated with the Rev. Mr. Sheldon during his life and was a close personal friend. Samuel L. Trabue spoke at the service as the representative of the Rushville congregation and expressed well the sorrow of the local friends of the deceased pastor, because of his untimely death, just when he was beginning a ministry of service in Rushville which would have borne rich fruit.

Several members of the Hartford City church said yesterday that they expected to attend the memorial services which will be held at the church here next Sunday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock under the auspices of the Whitewater presbytery.

Resolutions adopted by the Rushville Ministerial association last Friday evening were read at the services Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Manning and were as follows:

Whereas—Death has come with the suddenness of a summer storm to our beloved brother and co-worker in the Gospel Ministry Rev. George F. Sheldon. Thus removing from the labors of earth, his loved ones in the flesh and faith, and associates in the ministry, one of God's noble men, and preachers of the Word.

Therefore—Be it resolved by the Ministerial Association of Rushville, Ind.

First. That we humbly bow in grief before this tragic sorrow and shadow that has fallen over our fair city, the church and community he so faithfully served, the friends and family he so dearly loved, and the fellowship we had with him in this sacred service.

Second. That we express our appreciation of the manliness of the man. His devotion to his ministry. His interest in civic righteousness. His unflinching loyalty to the Word of His Lord. His kindly christian consideration of his brother ministers. His unfailing charity towards the ideas of all christian people. And that we commend the example

End of Passing Machine Swings
Into Front of O. M. Dale's Car
Near New Paris, Ohio.

NEITHER OF OCCUPANTS HURT

A two-weeks' motor trip by Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Dale, 424 North Main street, almost ended seriously yesterday afternoon, when their machine was struck by a passing machine near New Paris, O., and badly damaged, but both Mr. and Mrs. Dale escaped without injury, and the passing automobile never hesitated to ascertain the damage done.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale were returning home from the two weeks' tour of the east, and had just remarked about how fortunate they had been in not having trouble of any sort, when on the road 2 1/2 miles from New Paris, a machine approached them at a rapid rate, and the rear end swung into the front end of the Dale machine.

Mrs. Dale was driving and was going about 18 miles an hour when the crash came. The front wheel was broken off and the car headed for the ditch, but luckily did not turn over. The other car was occupied by a man and a woman, and was going 40 or 50 miles an hour. The damaged machine was soon repaired, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale arrived home late last evening.

FORMER RUSHVILLE DRAYMAN FOUND DEAD

Samuel E. Maines, Age 55, Dies Suddenly Today, Probably From Effects of Overdose of Medicine

TAKING HEART STIMULANT

Samuel E. Maines, age 55 years, expired this morning suddenly at his home in Moscow. His body was found by the family lying across the back walk, death probably being due to the taking of an overdose of medicine, which acted as a stimulant for his heart.

Mr. Maines was well known in this city, having been a drayman here for a number of years, up until a few years ago when they moved to Laurel, and later to Moscow. For several years he was a sufferer of stomach and heart trouble, and had been taking a strong heart medicine. The theory is that this morning he took an overdose, which induced heart failure. Coroner Lee has not yet returned a verdict.

The deceased is survived by three children, the wife having died about a year ago. The children are Mrs. Myrta Biggs of Decatur county, Raymond and a younger son. The funeral arrangements were not completed today, but the burial will probably be made in East Hill cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

STRAW VOTE WILL BE CONDUCTED BY STORES

Pitman and Wilson's One of 8,000
Which Will Take Poll During
Presidential Campaign

FORECAST RESULT IN 1916

Pitman and Wilson, local druggists, announced today that the eight thousand Rexall stores in the United States would conduct a straw vote this campaign similar to the one four years ago. The vote received from every state in the Union will be tabulated in Boston and will be sent to all the stores for posting. It is recalled that the Rexall stores polled a million votes in nine days during the last presidential campaign and forecast Wilson's election even to the state he carried by a small margin.

Ballot boxes will be placed in front of Pitman and Wilson's store and ballots will be provided for voting. Bulletins will be posted daily showing national, state and local results of the poll. The men's and women's votes will be cast separately and tabulated separately. The first report on the national vote will be issued Sept. 21, the second on Sept. 28, the third on Oct. 1 and from that time on every day until the election.

Two large trees on Dan Long's farm near Gings were hit by lightning and set on fire. They were still burning last night.

PLANT TO BE READY TO START MONDAY

County Agent D. D. Ball Announces
Seed Wheat Testing Will Begin
on That Date

FARMER LIMITED TO 5 BUSHEL

Will be in Operation Three Weeks
and Approximately 1200 Bushels
Will be Treated

County Agent D. D. Ball announced today that the seed wheat treating plant would be ready for operation by next Monday morning, when over 1,200 bushels of seed will be given the hot water treatment and about three weeks time will be required in doing the work.

The work this year will be carried on as it was last year in the old heating plant building, back of the jail. The interior is being rearranged, and Mr. Ball has made extensive improvements, so that more wheat can be treated this year than there was last.

Instead of using the furnace that is in the building, a traction engine will be used on the outside of the building in order to heat the water for the tanks.

It will be equipped to take care of five bushels of wheat at a time. Farmers will unload the grain at a window on the south side, in the alley, and it will then be transferred into vats of cold water, where the seed remains in soak for five hours, before being given the hot water treatment.

All grain must be cleaned first by the farmer and much time will be saved at the plant here. After the seed has soaked for five hours it is then put into a tank, which is suspended on a moving track, and is dipped into hot water, which will be 129 degrees. The five bushels will remain in this hot water, at the even temperature for ten minutes and will then be hoisted out another door into the open, where it is to be spread out for a pre-cooling and is to be afterwards dried by the farmer in his barn.

The plans are about worked out, and it is expected that 100 bushels will be given the treatment each day, which will mean that the county agent and assistants will be kept busy all day, beginning at three o'clock in the morning, when the first seed must be put into the cold water for soaking, making the hot water treatment begin at eight o'clock each day.

The value of giving the hot water treatment has been explained before, and is well known by all progressive farmers who have had their seed wheat treated before. Last year over 500 bushels were treated, and this year it is planned to accept 100 bushels from each township, with five bushels being the limit from each farmer.

There are still a few available dates left, and anyone who has not made arrangements in his township for taking the treatment, should consult the county agent, and secure a date, as well as typewritten instructions regarding the treatment.

CONVENTION TO COVER TWO DAYS

Second Annual Meeting of Indiana
Federation of Farmers' Associations to be Longer.

TO MAKE ROOM FOR SPEECHES

Dairying Department Similar to One
For Live Stock and Grain Men
To Be Established.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 13.—At the quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations it was decided that the program of the second annual state convention of the organization should cover two days this year instead of one as originally provided. Speakers of national importance will be brought here to address the delegates to the convention which promises to be the greatest gathering of its kind ever held in Indiana. The board of directors were unanimous in their opinion that aside from the transaction of regular convention business, a program should be provided which would give the farmers the opportunity of hearing addresses from recognized expert on questions of vital interest to the rural communities.

In the absence of President John G. Brown, the board meeting was presided over by Everett McClure, first vice-president of the state federation. One of the most important action of the board was a decision to establish a dairying department similar to that established for the live stock and the grain producers' department. A committee is to be appointed soon to investigate dairying conditions in Indiana and obtain information of value to the producers.

Word has been received by Lewis Taylor, general secretary of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations, from Gray Silver, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, that negotiations are pending for the War Department to turn over tremendous quantities of surplus property suitable for use on the farm. Included in this property is several hundred thousand sets of high grade harness, saddles, many thousand wagons, auto truck trailers, tools, etc.

Mr. Taylor said that through a tentative plan large quantities of this material would be turned over to the national organization of the farmers at most attractive prices, and every facility of the War Department used in assisting in getting this material to the consumer. Before going further with the proposition the national organization expects to take up the feasibility of handling the surplus property through the various state organizations of farmers.

In setting out the proposition Mr. Gray said in his communication, "The idea we have in mind, is simply to make arrangements to send to the states interested samples of all the material offered together with a specially prepared catalog picturing and describing these articles. The idea is to have the state organization take the matter up with the local county associations and arrange to have meetings in each county where special opportunity would be given members to order."

A part of the plan after the local orders had been taken would be to place all of these into a state order and these in turn concentrated into one national order. It was reported that if the orders were handled on this basis the War Department would go to extraordinary lengths to work with the farmers in the distribution of these immense supplies of army goods.

CONTINUED TO NOV. 10

The case in police court against Marlin Gibson, charged with operating his automobile without license plates, has been continued by Mayor Iryin until November 10, and will be heard by a jury. No reason has been assigned for continuing the case for such a long period of time. It was set for trial last Friday night, but Mayor Iryin decided to continue the case.

which shows at the Princess Theawin Sloane. The stage direction, which has caused much comment in itself, is by Mr. Anderson. He came as a surprise to the conventional theatrical manager with this, his first notable effort. His principal accomplishment was to sweep away all scenery and use draperies exclusively. On these, around and about them, he played electric and multi-colored lights, with a mastery justified by his years of training and the Company of the great craftsman, Sir Herbert Tree. Anderson has done a great many things in the Follies, which have caused comment.

But it is after all in the players that the principal value lies. Conspicuous in the imposing array of celebrities whom the Bohemians have assembled in the Follies are James Watts, an adept in the art of burlesque and travesty. Ted Lewis the jazz king and his delicious, from-bones, Verna Gordon, America's foremost disciple of the exotic dance, and Al Herman the Blackface Comedian, labeled by Ernie as the "Jacquard laugh-maker".

Jap Actor at Mystic

Sessue Hayakawa, the Oriental star shifts to sunny Spain for the scene of "The Brand of Lopez," in which he is to be seen at the Mystic Theater today.

Hayakawa plays the part of Vasco Lopez, one of the most famous mat-adors, or bull-fighters in the kingdom of Spain. There is more action and conflict in this picture than in any Hayakawa recently has made, save perhaps only "The Tong Man."
Jealousy motivates the early part of the picture, and leads the matador into a duel with a young military man who flirts with Lola Castillo, the matador's sweetheart. After he has risked his life in a fierce battle with daggers the girl refuses to fly with the matador to escape the police who want him for dueling.
He is arrested and imprisoned. Before going behind the bars he threatens revenge upon the girl and the man she marries.

Later Lopez is lead into another fight with the husband of his former sweetheart. This affair makes him a hunted man, and henceforth he is a bandit. He has a son by a village girl whom he carries off. The fact that he has become a father softens him, and he promises to return and wed the girl. Just as he is preparing to do this the girl dies. Then Lopez swears vengeance upon the villagers, who had taunted her, and made her so miserable that her death followed. His destruction of the village leads up to the most dramatic series of episodes which show Lopez as a heroic figure touched with pathos.

CLOSER TAB KEPT ON STILL MANUFACTURERS

United States Treasury Department
Decides to Tighten Regulations
On Sale

TO LESSEN OUTPUT OF BOOZE

Washington, Sept. 13.—In an effort to end illicit distilling of intoxicating liquor, the United States treasury has decided to tighten regulations around the sale of stills and add another check to its means of tracing down their users.
Manufacturers of stills are required by the new regulations to report all sales, the names of purchasers and locations where the stills are to be set up. Names of manufacturers must be securely attached to the articles sold, and sworn statements must be obtained from purchasers setting forth the purposes for which stills are to be used.
Until the manufacturer has complied with the new regulations he is not permitted to allow the still to leave his workshop. Such sales cannot be finally consummated until a permit or certificate has been granted by the local Internal Revenue authorities.
Details of the still's specifications are demanded as well as the production capacity on a per day basis.
Copies of this information must be preserved by the manufacturer and the purchaser and a third copy delivered to the Internal Revenue agent at the place of sale such records to be open for examination at all times.
To avoid resales between dealers through which identity of the stills might be lost, the regulation requires the application for a permit each time such a transfer takes place.
Both revenue and prohibition enforcement officers must be appraised of any proposed change of location of a still, and a permit must be obtained which will set forth all details of the original sale certificate as well as giving the new information required.

Just a Reminder
How would you like to journey to the nearest city for a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread, or a smoke? And how would you like to make the trip when you need a prescription filled in a hurry with death running you a race?
You would make some noise if forced to such an extremity—and then more noise.
You would say—and justly so—that a town in which you can not buy a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread, or a smoke, or even get a prescription filled, is a mighty poor excuse for a town and not worth living in.
Yet our merchants can only afford to keep these things for your convenience as long as you buy other things from them.

If you are not doing this town any good to buy the little things here and then chase off to a city or send to a catalogue house when you want something on which the merchant has a chance to make a dollar.
Neither is it doing you any good, for the prosperity of each citizen is dependent to a large extent upon the prosperity of the community as a whole.
We are not telling you something you do not know.
We are simply refreshing your memory in hopes the time may come when our people will conclude that a town that is worth living in is worth trading in.
That's all.

The Prigal May Return
There are unmistakable indications of a coming change in our economic condition, and this, we hope, will bring many thousands of our wandering boys back to the farms.
Banks throughout the country are tightening up on loans, and are calling in those made for speculative purposes.
The public is ceasing to buy as extravagantly as of yore, with the result that manufacturers are of necessity curtailing their output.
This is throwing thousands of men out of employment, and many of them are experiencing difficulty in finding other sources of earning a livelihood.
As a rule the farm hand who rushed off to the city is the least experienced in these trades, and it is but natural that he should be among the first to be laid off.
What more sane course could he take than to return to the farm, where is an expert and employment is always awaiting him?

Speed the return of the wandering boy. He is welcome before he arrives.
The man who overrates his ability generally learns when too late that he had none to overrate.
If you don't like the bad luck that is pursuing you, kick it into the discard and hitch onto a better kind. No one is preventing you.
The ability to speak a number of languages is quite commendable, but to be able to speak our own correctly is more dependable.
Silence is golden, some say, but not when you are waiting for a bad bill to be paid.
It is human nature to admire men who "do things", but there are times when we think more of those who don't.

The Bible admonishes us to tell the truth, but wisdom dictates that we be careful who we tell it to for fear it be distorted.

Of your divinity,

Keep shining, shining,

This touching and hospitable invitation by the poet to the star, urging said star to have a shine on him and say when, moves us to do thus:

Keep barking, barking,

With great intensity,
Showing your density,
Bark on, to beat the band—
See how much I CAN stand!
Keep barking, barking,

Current Comment
Disintegration of the League
The renomination of Senator Moses by the Republicans of New Hampshire at the primaries on Tuesday is followed by the equally significant and satisfactory renomination of Senator Brandegee by the Republicans of Connecticut at their State Convention yesterday. Mr. Brandegee is one of the ablest, squarest and most useful men in the Senate. His services here cannot be spared by the party or the country.
All the indications afforded by these recent incidents of preliminary politics point to the rapid disintegration of the Wilson League of Nations in the esteem of the American people.
As we said yesterday, the hope of universal peace was so general and so eager after the armistice that probably 90 percent of our citizens were inclined to view with favor any proposal for an international association of concert or tribunal which should reduce the probability of another such horrible experience.
Perhaps this estimate of the percentage is too low. Perhaps ninety-five out of every one hundred Americans were receptive as to the League of Nations at the time when The Sun now The Sun and New York Herald, first endeavored to show the hollowness, the falseness, the unsoundness, the hopelessness of the self-determined scheme which Mr. Wilson obstinately insisted must be accepted at his hand in our government was to enter any international agreement for the sake of peace.
The nationwide change of opinion which rapidly succeeding events now exhibit from day to day is one of the most remarkable demonstrations that we can recall of the power of hard common sense over prismatic sentimentalism. There is no less love of peace and hope for enduring peace in the hearts of Americans today than there was two years ago, when President Wilson began to juggle with delusive phrases. But there has been a tremendous decline of popular faith in his specific; a great increase of popular conviction that the supergovernment his covenant offers us in place of our independent nationalism is sure to be a war-maker, not a peace preserver.
Undoubtedly this last consideration has had a leading part in producing the phenomenal change here referred to. There can be of course no exact census of those who have changed their original view of the Wilson League of Nations; but if we were to venture a statistical guess, based on recent incidents and indications, we should surmise that the 90 or 95% had now fallen to 30 percent or thereabouts, with the decline and fall off still actively progressive.

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

MRS. WM. P. SMITH of Los Angeles, Calif., who says Tanlac completely restored her health when no one believed she would ever be well again. Has gained thirteen pounds.

"I will never stop praising Tanlac, for it has restored my health when everyone who knew of my dreadful condition had no idea I would ever get well.

"Two years ago, following an accident, I began suffering from indigestion and severe stomach trouble. I grew worse so rapidly that my health soon became perfectly wretched. My stomach became so weak I couldn't eat the simplest food or even drink a glass of milk without suffering for hours afterward. I was extremely nervous, and would have palpitation of the heart so badly at times I would almost faint. My circulation was very poor, I had no color, and weighed only eighty-one pounds. It seemed I was just gradually starving by degrees, and I had almost given up hope.

"After the best medical treatment failed to help me, travel and a change of surroundings was advised, so I traveled nearly all over the United States and had treatment every place I went, but always with the same disappointing results. How I stood my suffering is more than I can tell, and I became so despondent that life seemed hardly worth living.

"That is just the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac. When my husband first suggested Tanlac I told him I had no faith in it, but the next day he bought me a bottle, and to my great surprise it seemed to agree with me, so I kept on taking it. The results speak for themselves.

"I have gained thirteen pounds in weight, and I feel perfectly well in every way. My appetite is splendid and I eat just anything I want and never have the slightest symptom of indigestion. I am so happy over the recovery of my health that I feel just like telling everybody about this wonderful medicine."

The above remarkable statement was made recently by Mrs. William P. Smith, a well known and highly respected resident of Los Angeles, Calif., residing at 139 East Avenue 36.

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Joe. Hankins. R. R. 2—Adv.

Tail Lights Win From Beech Grove Red Sox Sunday, 9 to 6, Pulling Out of Bad Hole

GAME IS INTERESTING ONE

Visitors Take Early Lead by Hitting Plummer Freely Put Rushville Pulls Out in Front

Pounding two pitchers hard, the Tail Lights won from the Beech Grove Red Sox yesterday afternoon on the West Third street diamonds by the score of 9 to 6, in a game that was well played by both teams, and featured by the pitching of Plummer who succeeded in getting out of several bad places.

When the game first started, it looked as if the Tail Lights were doomed, as the first batted up, Flagler, pounded out a double past second base, and, continued to run, stealing third base, and an over-throw in order to check his running, brought him in home.

Naney, next man up, was out on a fly ball. Thorn singled and Hamilton was safe on an error. Ryker was out on a fly. Askins, next man up was out on an infield ball. Two hits and two errors brought in two runs.

The Tail Lights went one ahead of the visitors in the last of the second inning, when three singles, a base on balls, earned three runs for the home team.

Loomis, pitching for the Red Sox, was being hit freely and was replaced in the sixth inning by Waywood, who allowed only four hits. The Tail Lights scored three runs in the eighth inning, which sewed up the game, although the visitors started a rally in both the eighth and ninth innings, which for a time looked to be serious.

In the eighth inning, the Tail Lights worked out of a bad place. Thorn, first up, was out on a fly ball. Hamilton was struck by a wild pitch, and was given first base. Ryker singled. Askins was walked. The bases were filled with only one out. Smith was at bat and smacked the ball to Plummer, who pegged it to home, and Byrne threw it to first base, making a double play, which probably prevented the visitors from scoring.

In the ninth inning, the visitors again showed up dangerous, and put across two more runs. Lancaster, first man up, singled, followed by a two base hit by Waywood, scoring Lancaster. Flagler delivered a three base hit, scoring Waywood. With two runs in, and no outs, the chances began to look bad. Naney, next man up, hit a pop up to Conway, shortstop, and Flagler was held on third base. Thorn, next up, fanned. Hamilton flew out to the outfield. Three hits in this inning delivered two runs.

The Tail Lights pounded the ball hard throughout the game, making 14 hits. Every man on the team succeeded in getting a hit except Byrne, who was walked three times, and was safe on first base on an error. Byrne also put across three of the runs for the Tail Lights, although he did not get a hit. The pitchers were evidently afraid to let him hit. Pearsey was at bat four times, and made three hits.

The game yesterday was the kind

"Would Bloat Up Like A Balloon"

Claims his stomach caused him much uneasiness by filling up with gas. Was very nervous and constipated. Two bottles of Dreco proved a great blessing to him.

"I have suffered a great deal from constipation and all the distress that goes with it. My bowels refused to act in a normal manner and I had to be continually taking physic," said Mr. Ollie Clark residing on East Front St., Huntington, Ind.

"It seemed like everything I ate turned to gas and bloated me up like a balloon. Every one who has suffered from stomach trouble has experienced this unpleasant sensation. I would get so nervous I couldn't sleep."

"Then one day I was fortunate enough to hear about Dreco and what it would do for cases like mine. I didn't hesitate in getting a bottle, for I felt that if it had helped others it would surely do as much for me. Well, it seemed to suit my case exactly and I hadn't taken many doses until I felt the benefit.

"I have just finished my second bottle and I am entirely free from gas; I can sleep like a top and have lost that nervous, restless feeling. Dreco is fine."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Harry Matthew Meyer, who died four years ago Sept. 11, 1918.

Sad is the memory of four years ago When you left us all in sorrow, For that home so far away.

You bade no one a last farewell, You could say good-bye to none, A dear young heart had ceased to beat,

Before we knew that you had gone. We often sit and think of you, When we are all alone.

For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own. We miss you more and more each day,

As days and weeks roll by. But Oh, we live in hope of meeting, In that heavenly home on high.

TALK UP HIS NEW DUTIES IN NEW YORK

Tom J. Geraghty's Rise in Motion Picture Business Discussed in New York Times

The following from the New York Telegram tells of the arrival of Tom J. Geraghty in New York and describes his rapid rise in the motion picture business.

Tom J. Geraghty arrived in New York from California last week and will immediately take up the duties of Eastern production editor of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, the position recently relinquished by Roswell Dague, who has been granted a long leave of absence during which he will travel extensively.

On his way East Mr. Geraghty made a short visit at his old home in Rushville, Ind. The rise of Tom Geraghty has been an epic of ability. From grocery counter to printer's devil to star reporter have been certain steps to his present eminence as a writer for the screen. He worked in his father's general store in Rushville before he "cubbed" as a reporter on the Rushville Republican, and it was his newspaper work in the little Indiana town that attracted the attention of Samuel G. Blythe, the famous political writer, and it was not long after that he was drawing pay on the New York Herald. His rise to the rank of star reporter was rapid. "But the moving picture bee slipped into my bonnet," he relates, "and I went the way of so many good newspaper men—I began writing film publicity. After exploiting Metro productions for some time I began reading in their scenario department, then titling and editing."

His first real scenario position, however, was with Famous Players-Lasky, and among scenarios written the first year were "Those Without Sin" and "The American Consul."

From that time to the present he has occupied a high place in the profession and has been the author of many of the most successful original stories and adaptations that have appeared on the screen.

Foley's Honey and Tar

COMPOUND

AN OLD RELIABLE FAMILY REMEDY, recommended for coughs, colds, tickling of the throat, spasmodic croup, whooping cough, is grippe, and bronchial coughs, hoarseness, etc.

The First Dose Gave Relief

C. E. Summers, Holdrege, Neb., writes: "Some time ago I contracted a very severe cough and cold due to exposure. My cough got so bad I could hardly sleep for two or three nights. A friend of mine recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and I got a 50c bottle. The very first dose relieved me. I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I did not cough once all night. By using as directed the next two days my cough was entirely gone, and I give Foley's Honey and Tar full credit for my speedy and permanent recovery."

For more than thirty years Foley's Honey and Tar has been used with satisfaction and success.

MAINE'S VOTERS GATHER AT POLLS

To Ballot for Governor, Auditor and to Settle a Political Race That Has Been Fought

CONTEST IS OF INTEREST

Vote of Newly Enfranchised Women Will be Watched With Perhaps The Greatest Interest

Augusta, Me., Sept. 13—Maine's electorate gathered at the polls today to ballot for a governor, state auditor and members of Congress and to settle a political race that has been as bitterly fought as any witnessed here in recent years.

The contest in Maine has been watched with unusual interest throughout the rest of the country and its outcome, it is predicted, will indicate the trend of the national campaign. A heavy oratorical barrage has been laid down from one end of the state to the other, both Democrats and Republicans sending nationally-known spellbinders into every district.

While conceded to be a Republican state, Democrats assert they will win this year, pointing out that Democratic governors were elected in 1910 and 1914 and the Republican majority cut from a normal 12,000 to 5,000 when Hughes carried the state in 1916.

Col. Frederic H. Parkhurst is the Republican candidate for governor. He is opposed by Bertrand G. McIntire, Democrat. Parkhurst defeated Gov. Carl E. Milliken at the primaries. McIntire was beaten by Milliken two years ago.

The Congressional races in Maine's four districts are as follows: First—Republican, Carrol L. Beedy, Portland; Democrat, Frank H. Haskell, Portland.

Second—Republican, Wallace H. White, Lewiston; Democrat, Wallace N. Price, Richmond.

Third—Republican, John A. Peters, Ellsworth; Democrat, C. Archibald, Towle, Oakland.

Fourth—Ira G. Hersey, Houlton; Democrat, Leon C. G. Brogan, Milo.

The present state auditor, Roy L. Wardwell, of Augusta, Republican, is running for re-election against former representative James J. Neilson, Biddeford.

The race of the newly enfranchised women will be watched with perhaps greatest interest. Political observers, however, contend the new votes will have no appreciable effect on the outcome.

The suffrage question was submitted to a referendum today, also. The state legislature ratified the nineteenth amendment, but a sufficient number of petitioners asked a test vote at the polls. The result, if adverse, would not, it is believed, effect the validity of nation suffrage, in view of the Supreme Court's ruling in a similar situation in Ohio.

REPUBLICANS PLAN A BUSY CAMPAIGN

From Now Until Election Stump Speakers Will be Seen Throughout The State From Headquarters

HARDING WILL SPEAK SOON

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 13—Top-notch speakers for the Republican rallies in this state will be supplied by the Republican national speakers' bureau, Fred B. Robinson, chairman of the state speakers' bureau, said today.

Mr. Robinson declared that Senator Harding's followers are greatly pleased with the announcement that he intends to come to Indianapolis for an address about the middle of October, and delegations from many countries are planning to come here for the big rally.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and a number of prominent women speakers will be on the stump in this state later on.

The next big Republican event of state-wide importance will be the celebration of Constitution Day, September 17, Mr. Robinson said. On that day meetings will be held in every county in the state under the auspices of the Republicans, to celebrate the anniversary of the adoption of the constitution of the United States.

MEAT PACKERS IN SESSION

Will Lay Plans for Increasing Live Stock Production

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 13—Meat packers from all parts of the country met here today to discuss problems affecting that industry, particularly plans for increasing livestock production.

Producers are said to have been marketing cattle below the cost of production and many packers reporting losses in handling beef. The situation, it was feared, may result in a serious decrease in the number of food animals raised.

The meeting, called by Thomas E. Wilson, president of the Institute of American Meat Packers, will last three days.
